

RoHS directive 2011/65/EU

As of October 2025

emico hereby informs you of the compliance with EU Directive 2011/65/EU ('Restriction of Hazardous Substances' – RoHS), including its extension (EU) 2015/863, with regard to our product lines.

After careful examination and based on the information provided to us by our suppliers, we confirm that all products we offer and supply meet the requirements of the currently valid RoHS Directive.

RoHS compliance is stored in our product data, indicated on all documents in the article text and can be viewed as information for all products in our online shop www.emico.com.

This information is based on our current knowledge and the information provided by our suppliers. It is for general information purposes only and does not constitute a legally binding assurance or guarantee. The customer is responsible for the safe, appropriate and legally compliant use, processing and handling of the products.

We ask for your understanding that, due to the large number of enquiries we receive, we are unable to issue customer-specific declarations or individual forms.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the emico division staff by telephone on +49 9621 675450 or by e-mail at sales@emico.com.
